

Summary

Artist with more than 10 years of experience of working on social issues, and women's situation in society through expressionist style. A specialist artist in representing emotions and women's common issues with a focus on criticizing social and domestic violence and discrimination against women in my society. The main intention of my work is raising awareness about the human condition especially women and children from an existential perspective. Since I left college and started making art as a professional painter, I have had the ambition of encouraging my audience to reflect on their own personality and actions as a member of the universe.
